Who you'll meet

The Summit draws CPAs at every stage of their careers, with a concentration of the people who sign the contracts: managing partners, firm leaders and the emerging leaders their firms are investing in. They come to talk strategy, technology, talent and the direction of the profession — which makes them unusually receptive to the companies that serve them.

Why sponsor the Summit

- The buyers are in the room. This is a firm-leadership audience, not a general CPE crowd — the attendees who set budgets and pick vendors.
- Face time, not just a logo. Gold and Platinum include an exhibit booth and time with attendees at meals, breaks and receptions.
- The only audience like it. CalCPA is the largest state CPA society in the United States and the most direct path to California's CPA community.
- Association with a trusted name. Sponsoring the Summit aligns your brand with the organization California CPAs turn to for education, community and advocacy.
- Room to build on it. Add-on packages let you own a moment of the event — a CPE session, a curated dinner, the firm awards — instead of blending into the signage.

Deadline: Sponsorship commitments are due April 9, 2027. Levels and add-ons are limited and sell on a first-come basis.
