

2025 CalCPA
Career Guide

Welcome to CalCPA's newest Career Guide!

You've picked a great time to become a CPA. The CPA license today equates to a world of possibilities as the profession has morphed to offer career paths in IT consulting, artificial intelligence, forensics, cybersecurity, cryptocurrency and various other areas. CPAs are a diverse group of professionals involved in shaping the future of the businesses and individuals they serve.

Yet we know that launching and directing a CPA career can be challenging—and sometimes scary. Which is why we put together this guide to help answer your questions and provide some direction.

Inside this guide you'll find one convenient place for information about California firms, including number of staff, areas of practice, internship opportunities and support provided for those working toward CPA licensure; California CPA licensure requirements; interviewing tips; and more that'll give you the knowledge and confidence to take the next step in your career.

And along with this guide, be sure to visit calcpa.org/students for even more resources, including searching for jobs, posting your résumé and events geared specifically for you. Plus, students and candidates are eligible for free membership to CalCPA.

So, wherever you are in your career—from student to candidate to just starting in the profession—we have the tools and resources you need to help you succeed.

We look forward to being alongside you in your journey!

Counting the Benefits: 7 Compelling Reasons to Become a CPA

Elevate your career and open doors to success

Reason 1: High demand and job security

Becoming a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) guarantees a stable and rewarding career path.

The demand for skilled accounting professionals remains consistently high across industries, ensuring job security even in uncertain economic times. CPA licensure opens up a wide range of opportunities, as every organization requires accounting expertise to manage finances and make strategic decisions.

Reason 2: Competitive compensation

CPA professionals earn competitive salaries and enjoy higher earning potential compared to their non-licensed counterparts. With the CPA qualification, you can negotiate better compensation packages and benefit from various bonuses and incentives offered by companies seeking certified professionals.

Reason 3: Industry versatility

Obtaining a CPA license provides you with the flexibility to work in various industries, including finance, banking, consulting, government, nonprofit, and more. CPAs are highly sought after for their ability to analyze financial data, provide valuable insights, and ensure compliance with accounting standards and regulations.

Reason 4: Advancement opportunities

Being a CPA opens doors to rapid career progression and advancement opportunities.

CPAs often have access to executive-level positions such as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Controller, or Audit Manager. As a CPA, you can build a successful career path with increased responsibilities and leadership roles, contributing to the growth and success of organizations.

Reason 5: Global recognition and mobility

CPA certification is globally recognized, allowing you to pursue opportunities worldwide.

As businesses increasingly operate on a global scale, the demand for internationally qualified CPAs is on the rise. With a CPA license, you can explore international job prospects, transfer to overseas branches, or even work for multinational corporations.

Reason 6: Continuous learning and professional development

The accounting profession requires ongoing learning and development, ensuring that CPAs stay up to date with the latest industry trends and regulations.

By becoming a CPA, you gain access to a wide range of professional development resources, such as conferences, workshops, and specialized certifications, to enhance your knowledge and expertise.

Reason 7: Prestige and credibility

Earning the CPA designation showcases your commitment to professionalism and excellence in the accounting field. Being a CPA adds credibility to your resume, making you stand out to employers and clients. Clients and colleagues will perceive you as a trusted advisor and expert, providing you with valuable opportunities for career growth and networking.

Embrace the power of the CPA designation — ignite your career today!

About us:

Navolio & Tallman LLP was founded on a simple but powerful belief: when we invest in people, we deliver exceptional outcomes. This philosophy drives our mission to help clients improve their financial lives through the highest standards of service while fostering a culture where our people can do their best work and thrive while doing it.

We also recognize that today's professionals want more than just a job. You seek purpose, impact, and growth. That is why we have adopted a modern, human-centered talent strategy that values diversity of experience, thought, and background. Instead of a one-size-fits-all approach, we help build careers that align with each person's unique potential. At N&T, you are not just choosing a job, you are choosing a meaningful career.

Our people first philosophy extends to innovation. With a tech forward approach, we equip our team to work smarter, collaborate effectively, and serve as trusted advisors and leaders. We cultivate a flexible, engaging environment that encourages work life integration, continuous learning, and mentorship from partners and managers. Our sophisticated clientele provides learning opportunities and mental stimulation conducive to ongoing development.

Most importantly, when you work with us, you will have impact on your career, on your clients, and on the future of the profession.

Benefits:

We offer a hybrid-working model, state of the art equipment, and firm events throughout the year that help our staff foster personal connections with coworkers and promote collaboration in the workplace. In addition, we offer full medical, dental and vision benefits, a 401k plan with profit sharing, life insurance, FSA healthcare and dependent care, 9 paid holidays, 16 PTO days per year for staff, employee referral bonuses, new business bonuses, CPE courses and bonuses for passing the CPA exam. About us:

We provide a similar range of accounting and tax experience that you would find at larger accounting firms while still maintaining a family atmosphere and closely knit work environment. Many members of our staff have been with the firm for over 10 years, and several are second generation employees. An advantage of working at SKSM, is that you would receive in-depth exposure to a variety of accounting and tax topics earlier in your career and you would work directly with and receive training from partners and other seasoned professionals.

SKSM maintains a friendly office environment with an open-door policy where staff members can talk directly to partners. At SKSM, we strive to maintain a work/life balance for our employees by offering flexible hours and minimal overtime requirements.

Our mission is to develop and maintain long-term client relationships by providing high-quality, in-dept and personalized consulting, accounting, auditing and tax services. We are committed to investing in continuing professional education and expanding our specialized services, so our clients receive the most optimized accounting solutions available.

SKSM clientele consists of individuals, small businesses, and not-for-profit organizations. Many clients are owner occupied businesses who look to us as their trusted financial advisor. Our accountants work directly with these owners to guide them through the complexities of running their businesses and personal financial matters and help to develop strategies for to them succeed.

Benefits:

We offer employees a full range of benefits including medical and dental health care, 401k with employer matching, tax season bonuses, referral bonuses, paid professional education and license fees.

Awards/Accolades:

SKSM has been recognized as one of the top 50 firms in Los Angeles and voted the Best CPA firm in Santa Clarita. Many of our employees are very active in local organizations in an effort to give back to the community. Our employees serve on various community boards, including the hospital and college foundations, not-for-profits and community service organizations.
