

EXECUTIVE PROFILEMike Battaglia

It is an exciting time for the Company, and I look forward to building a sales organization that can operate at scale and capitalize on the momentum and incredible opportunities within the EV industry.

Chief Operating Officer

Mike Battaglia is a seasoned executive with a career marked by distinguished achievements across industry-leading organizations. Mike joined Blink following an exceptional tenure spanning nearly 15 years at JD Power, where he rapidly ascended through various leadership roles, culminating in positions such as Director of Operational Research and Vice President of Automotive Retail and Sales. With an expansive background encompassing esteemed organizations like Toyota and Penske, Mike brings over two decades of executive management experience to his current role as the COO of Blink Charging.

In his capacity as COO, Mike leverages his extensive 25+ years of automotive technology and sales experience to play a pivotal role in Blink's overall growth trajectory. He oversees Blink's Sales, Business Development, and Operations business units. Mike's strategic leadership is instrumental in driving our expansion efforts both domestically and globally, showcasing his dedication to steering Blink towards new heights of success.

Blink Charging

Founded in 2009, Blink is dedicated to slowing climate change by reducing greenhouse gas emissions caused by transportation. We're a driving force in the EV industry, paving the way for the growth and adoption of electric vehicles.
