

Top 5 things to ask at school

Cold calling a school? We've got you covered!

Use the questions below to help you structure your first conversation with a school administrator. Remember, most schools and districts will already have policies in place for accepting exchange students. It's our job to learn about their requirements to make sure we can have a good working relationship with each high school accepting an EF exchange student.

Top 5 questions to ask a high school:

1. Who is the best contact person to speak with regarding a foreign exchange student? Is that the same person who will sign off on a student's enrollment?
2. What are your policies related to accepting foreign exchange students?
3. How many students will your school accept each year? Do you accept one-semester students?
4. What are the acceptance criteria for a student's age, grade level or language ability?
5. When is your acceptance deadline? When will you sign a High School Enrollment form?
