RULES & REGULATIONS

1. All entries will be subject to the General Rules and Regulations of Farmfair.
2. Parent participation is not allowed apart from exhibitor and/or public safety. Adults will not be allowed to assist with the preparation of animals. Juniors are encouraged to assist other juniors. Exhibitors in violation of this rule will be disqualified from the show.
3. The show committee and management reserve the right to make decisions on any point not covered by these rules and to make corrections as necessary.
4. Show number will be mandatory in the show ring.

Conformation Show

1. Animals must be owned by the junior exhibitor, the immediate family or farm corporations that the junior is a member of, however animals must be exhibited by the junior named on the entry form.
2. Animals registered jointly by two juniors may only be exhibited by one junior.
3. Exhibitors may only enter one exhibit per class. Animals may be entered in a maximum of one class. No cross entries between divisions.
4. Calendar year calves at foot are eligible to be shown as a single animal in their respective class. If both would qualify to advance only one animal unit can advance.
5. Division Champions from the Purebred Show only, will qualify for the Purebred Grand Champion Female award and which is eligible for the Alberta Supreme Show. Commercial champions are not eligible to compete
6. An animal may be asked to leave the show ring at the discretion of the Junior Show committee and Farmfair management.
7. All grooming must be done by JUNIORS ONLY. Juniors may assist one another.
8. Classes will be split by age of animal if warranted after entries close at the discretion of the committee and Farmfair management.
9. The commercial and purebred shows are open to exhibitors 21 years of age (as of Nov 1, 2026) and under. There is no minimum age, however, if a young person requires help, it is highly recommended someone 21 years and under assists.
