Build Relationships!

Build Relationships!

Strategies

- Middle School athletes involved at feeder elementary schools
- Meet and greet at orientation night or separate evening
- Utilize gym teachers
- Athletic/Activity Fair- use current MS student athletes

Strategies

- Encourage participation in intramural sports
- Weights and Conditioning Club
- Pre-season meetings
- In-season meetings
- Post-season meetings

Coaches - Youth

- Reach out to youth associations and offer coaching clinicsemphasizing skills that need to be taught
- Skills and practice handbook
- Invite youth teams to games/events and vice versa
- Recognize youth sports coach of the month

Coaches - MS

- Communicate!
- Communicate!
- Communicate!

Strategies

- Communicate early, often and consistently
- Understand the differences and promote skill development and the importance of team and roles
- Stress the need to focus on academics, sportsmanship and citizenship
- Make your sport FUN- number one reason kids quit sports

Summary

Definitely a tough transition time:

- Everyone is an all star
- Not necessarily understand the importance of team
- Parents have been heavily involved- coaching
- Coming in with different coaching experiences

Communicate, Educate, and Enjoy the Ride!

Youth Sports By the Numbers

According to National Council of Youth Sports:

70% of young people quit sports by age 13 often due to factors like unsafe environments, ineffective coaching, and a lack of proper support

National Average of Participation is 54% (Project Play-Aspen Institute)
